

I am VERY much against the FCC opposing the weakening of Indiana's law. My privacy is very important to me and local businesses have no right to call me with offers that I would or would not choose via mail, local visit, or email.